

MISS DORTCH TO BE
GUEST OF KIWANIS

Urgent Need of Belgian Relief Set Forth in New Circular.

Miss Della Dortch, chairman of Belgian relief, will come to the city Tuesday and be a guest of the Kawanis club.

The urgent need of co-operation along all lines looking to the amelioration of conditions incidental to the German occupation of Belgium is being set forth in a printed form that was circulated at the meeting of the woman's committee, Council of National Defense, this morning. The circular reads as follows:

CONDITIONS TODAY IN BELGIUM

1. Population decreased from seven millions to three millions.
2. Decreased due to: (a) Deportations of able-bodied civilians to Germany; (b) Starvation of civilian population within the "steel ring."
3. "The steel ring" is a barbed wire fence, charged with electricity, running on the Dutch and on the French frontiers.
4. Three millions within the "steel ring" starving.
5. For four years Belgian women have had no word from their men at the front.
6. The Belgian soldier on furlough has no home to go to. His home is within the "steel ring."
7. German military authorities in Belgium have: (a) confiscated money in the banks; (b) stripped its factories of machinery and raw products; (c) looted houses, taking mattresses, blankets and all comforts; (d) mutilated what it could not use; (e) deported all able-bodied men, women, youths and maidens to work in the fields of Germany; (f) left only the physical unfit.
8. Belgium now threatened with loss of children—thousands dying of tuberculosis, scrofula and nervous disorders.
9. Thousands of the children have lost the power of speech.
10. Thousands of the children are maimed.
11. All Belgian relief money will be transmitted by the Tennessee committee to the Council of National Defense, direct to Washington to Baron de Cartier, Belgian minister.
12. He will forward same under direction of the Tennessee committee for Belgian relief to local relief agencies abroad.

ENLISTMENT CAMPAIGN FOR TRAINED NURSES

Committee Council of Defense to Follow Up Baby Welfare Work.

Committees for registering the babies started at their work this morning and will make a house-to-house canvass, taking the names and addresses of the babies until the town is covered. Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the mothers will be asked to take their babies under 6 years old to the school center of their respective wards, where there will be doctors, nurses and a corps of workers for the weighing, measuring and physical tests of the baby population of Chattanooga.

Mrs. Joe Clift, chairman of the baby welfare campaign, makes a strong appeal to the mothers to avail themselves

Attention, Ladies

The war, with its train of subconscious worries and anxieties, is said to be aging everybody.

The English ladies early discovered that "Beauty Treatments" were imperative if they were to hold on to their looks and be fit to greet the heroic men when they come marching home.

"A long face" is an abomination. If "carrying-on" has given length and lines to your face, I will show you how to make your face round again, and to banish wrinkles.

You can learn the art yourself, and, with these indispensable aids to good looks, the years will have no terror for you.

Let Dr. Golden try his scientific treatments once and you will be convinced.

BIDDY BYE'S GOOD FORM

Many styles of manners popular in the movies are to be avoided in real life. If a dish is smashed or a tray dropped in the dining room, polite persons do not pretend to hear it. Better be deaf, says good form, than become excited in time of accident.

of this opportunity for their babies' welfare and to co-operate with the committee and the government in saving the babies.

Campaign for Nurses.

The women's committee, Council of National Defense, is taking hold in earnest of work outlined for it by the government since the opening of its room in the Volunteer building.

Following close upon the heels of the baby welfare registration and follow-up work will be the enlistment campaign for nurses to be conducted July 29-Aug. 11. Tennessee has been asked to furnish 500 out of the 25,000 the government is calling for, and while Chattanooga's quota has not been set, the committee of the council of defense expects a ready response from the young women trained for nurses, and only those who have taken the course prescribed for trained nurses are eligible for the overseas work with the American forces.

Government printed matter concerning the requirements of the applicants and the salaries allowed can be had at the headquarters of the committee of the council of defense, in the Volunteer building, which is open five days in the week from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon, and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. till 1 p.m.

TO TENDERLY LAY TO REST
SOLDIERS WHO DIE HERE

Mrs. Hyde's Committee of Service League Never Misses Military Funeral.

It is probably that no branch of war activity or soldiers' relief undertaken by Chattanooga loves more earnestly a labor of love than that of Mrs. Charles B. Hyde's committee of the Women's Sunrise League, through which soldiers, who pass away at Fort Oglethorpe, are given proper burial. Flowers and music are always a feature of the services conducted at a local undertaking establishment, through the painstaking care of this committee. Mrs. E. B. Clark accompanies the singing.

Many times the ladies are summoned on a few minutes' notice, and have always answered the call. Often times it has been impossible to reach relatives and in this event the soldier is laid to rest in the National cemetery unattended by any member of his family. The custom of standing with uncovered head while a soldier's funeral procession is passing is urgently requested by Mrs. Hyde. Miss Mollie Kavanaugh, Mrs. Clark and others of the committee, and the French custom of stopping all traffic for a brief interval is under consideration, as a show of respect to the man who has as completely sacrificed his life for his country as though fallen upon the battle field.

COUNCIL DEFENSE NOT TO SUPERSEDE OTHER CLUBS

Mrs. C. M. Greve Lectures on Constitution of Body Before Chairmen.

The constitution, function and history of the woman's committee, Council of Defense, was fully presented to a large contingent of local clubwomen and chairmen at headquarters in the Volunteer building this morning at 10 o'clock by Mrs. C. M. Greve, the new corresponding secretary of the organization.

Mrs. Greve reviewed, at length, the work of the twelve departments, which form a clearinghouse for all women's organizations doing war work.

That it must not supersede work already done, but must supplement, which is not being undertaken, was the principal point stressed.

This effectively answers the contention of the Service League, which has been maintaining that the council duplicates reports. It was upon open discussion decided, however, at suggestion of Mrs. D. P. Montague, speaking for the Service League, that the report her organization sends to headquarters in New York, to be forwarded to Washington, need not be repeated by the council, except when desirable. This, it seems, has served to create the confusion.

Mrs. Greve's exposition of the government's method of collecting data in Cohoes, N. Y., was a telling illustration of activity in collecting. In order that the powers at Washington might secure quick information concerning the work of any club, the departments of the intermediary council of defense were formed. The need of the national woman's committee was early discovered by Mr. Hoover, she said. Every organization doing war work is, accordingly, a factor of the council. Since organized child welfare, to the degree of tabulating the various wards, had not been undertaken, the present campaign, under Mrs. Joe Clift's committee was inaugurated.

There are, however, eighty-one organizations engaged in food conservation, according to Mrs. Kreus's report. So the latter work is represented by report, not propaganda, by the council.

Mrs. Charles R. Hyde, presiding, pointed out at the conclusion of Mrs. Greve's lecture, just how far the council's power of activity may extend along other lines.

Among matters of business, the coming of Miss Della Dortch to the interest of Belgian relief, was discussed. Mrs. D. F. Beekham presented the subject.

The council did not undertake this work because Chattanooga is a cantonment city, with numerous "drives" needed. The work was referred to the Kiwanis club, and that organization will take the lead.

In reference to this matter, a new chairman of foreign relief, will be shortly provided.

Mrs. P. J. Kreus conducted discussion of the Red Cross nurse registration. The suggestion was made by Mrs. Mary Giles Howard, to open the campaign with a mass meeting. Mrs. C. C. Nottingham announced the lectures of Dr. Louise Leforte. Mrs. C. E. Buck asked that greater publicity be given headquarters of the council as a public meeting place, and that reports of all meetings be left on desks for the benefit of newspaper reporters. Interesting talks were made by Mrs. Nottingham, Mrs. Harry Lacey, Mrs. P. J. Kreus, Mrs. D. P. Montague, Mrs. Adolph Mathis and others.

Mrs. C. M. Greve was appointed corresponding secretary.

CHILD WELFARE.

Mrs. Joe Clift's subcommittee was also assembled in the "council chamber," when cards for the house-to-house canvass for registration were given to her various ward chairmen.

Mrs. Clift announced that the registration in the school buildings will take place next week, each day of the present week being devoted to the house-to-house registration.

SHIELDS TO DEFINE HIS POSITION ON SUFFRAGE

Just what will be the attitude of Senator John K. Shields, when the crucial moment arrives for him to cast his ballot on the equal suffrage question, does not, upon the surface, appear. So far, his final position has been much in doubt, and a matter of some speculation. According to a recent issue of the Nashville Banner, it is stated that Senator Shields, who recently arrived in Nashville, will receive a crowd of suffrage leaders one day this week. This promise is in response to an appeal from Mrs. Leslie Warner, head of the Tennessee Equal Suffrage association. Senator Shields is stopping at the Maxwell house. It is stated that he will define his position on suffrage.

LECTURES ANNOUNCED

Dr. Louise Leforte, of New York, sent out by the government under the auspices of the woman's committee, Council of National Defense, arrived this afternoon to engage in a series of lectures here.

Mrs. C. C. Nottingham, Mrs. D. P. Montague and Mrs. R. F. Macrae will have charge of the lectures under the vice-chairmanship of Mrs. Charles R. Hyde.

PEACH CROP WELL HANDLED
By Southern Railroads

Shipments of freight on all parts of the Queen & Crescent line are running smoothly, according to W. C. Stephens, division freight agent. Transportation of the recent heavy peach shipments is being handled in an especially satisfactory manner. Save for about 500 cars of peaches now awaiting transportation between here and Oakdale, there is practically no congestion of fruit shipments. Commenting on the celerity with which southern railroads have handled the peach crop, Mr. Stephens stated that all the Georgia crop has been moved except in the northern part of the state; just recently, Mr. Stephens said, over 5,200 cars of peaches have been moved over the Central of Georgia routes alone. The only delay in the shipment of the freight situation now appears to be the embargo points, to which no shipments may be sent except on government order. A freight embargo has been placed on these points, among which are Philadelphia and many New England cities, because of the congestion of freight of all kinds in their yards.

Naval Men on Same System
As Civilians in Sugar Buying

The food administration authorizes the following:

"Naval officers and their families who buy at community stores have gone on the same honor system of sugar purchase established by the food administration for civilians throughout the country. A recent order from Rear Admiral Samuel McEwan, paymaster-general, calls attention of commanding officers of shore stations to the fact that three pounds per capita per month is the maximum ration, and that not more than two pounds can be sold at a time to city customers and five pounds to dwellers in the country."

"Supply officers in charge of commissary stores have been asked to bring this matter to the attention of their patrons."

Minor Must Prove He Is 18
Before He Can Enter Army

The act of congress approved May 18, 1917, establishing the minimum age for voluntary enlistment in the United States army at 18 years.

A circular letter recently issued by the adjutant-general of the army says:

"The large number of applications received from parents and guardians for the discharge of minors under 18 years of age, inciting satisfactory evidence that the soldier is under this age, indicates the necessity of more care on the part of recruiting officers to guard against unnecessary expense to the government and annoyance to troops in the field in the subsequent discharge of such men, and to avoid placing a blot for life on the record of a boy whose offense of mismanagement of his own affairs usually from a patriotic desire to serve his country."

"Hereafter no applicant under the registration age will be accepted or enlisted until he has proven to the complete satisfaction of the recruiting officer that he has reached the age of 18 years. The proof required will be (a) birth certificate, baptismal record or school certificate, or, in case (a) is not available, affidavit of parent or of guardian with legal evidence of guardianship."

Eyes and Feet

If mothers would give the attention and watchful care to children's eyes that is given the feet, eye strain and other vision defects would be detected and corrected.

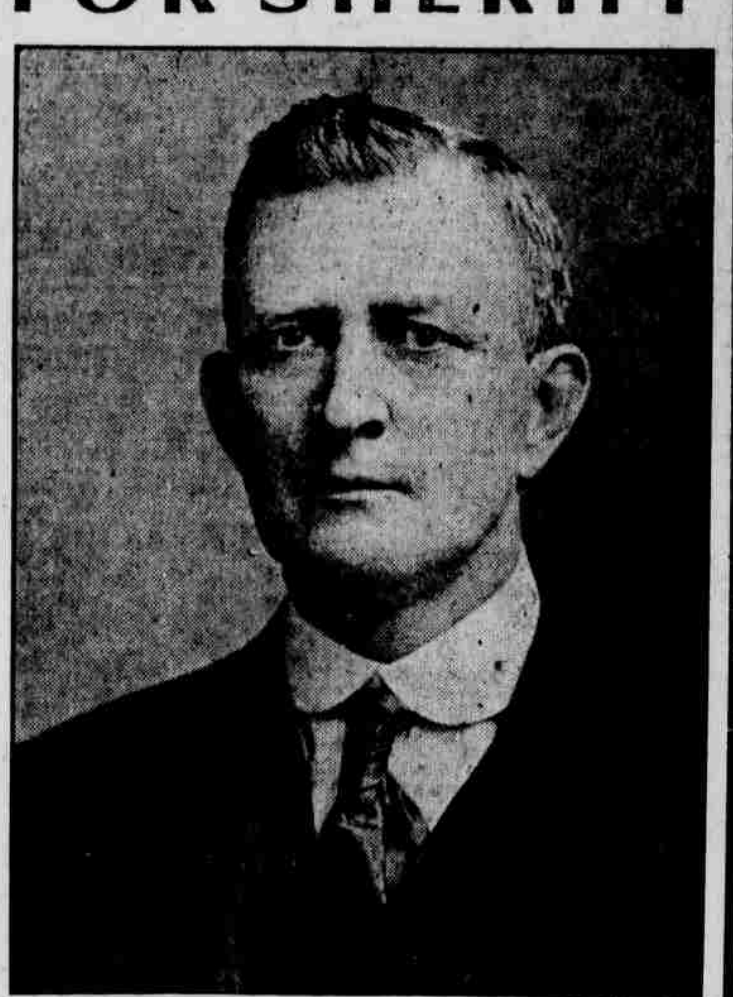

Specialists find that nature works to perfect the eye, when assisted by properly fitted glasses; children often outgrow their trouble and discontinue wearing glasses at the age of 16 and 18.

Take the children to a thoroughly reliable optician. The expense is slight.
